

Do your adverts say:
“...we are an equal opportunities
employer...”?

Market your vacancies directly to Disabled People

Why?

There's a proven business case for having a diverse workforce, plus you will be meeting your legal obligations under the Disability Equality Duty (Statutory Sector), exceeding obligations under the Disability Discrimination Act (all employers) and certainly fulfilling any equality opportunities policies / statements.

Of course, don't forget about that all important Corporate Social Responsibility we're hearing more and more about.

Disability Direct has several thousand enquiries from Disabled People each year and we are ideally suited to helping you find appropriate applicants.

How?

Simply visit the Jobs Section at www.disabilitydirectderby.co.uk and download the Vacancy Form. Once we have all the information about your post we'll have your vacancy online and will update all of the members of our mailing list.

For just £75 (+VAT) we will host your vacancy until it's deadline – a fantastic price, every single penny of which is spent for our charitable purpose.

Services

History

Sport

Jobs Section

Contact Us

Downloads

Support for Businesses

Ltd Company | 3891119
Don Charity | 1079831

Jobs

Disability Direct is absolutely committed to ensuring disabled people have every opportunity to live independent lives – and employment opportunities for those that can work is absolutely key to this.

As such we are now going to be using this part of the website to advertise a range of vacancies throughout Derby and the surrounding areas – the employers that you will see advertising here over the coming months are all committed to Disability Equality.

If you'd like support in looking for work or training – make sure you book an appointment with Charlotte Patrick, our NextSteps advisor

Want to know about the Disability Discrimination Act and how it can help both you and your potential / existing employer? Speak to Rachel Shepherd, our DDA employment advisor

Subscribe...

...and we'll email you every time a vacancy is added to the site

Employer	Summary	Closing Date
	Assistant Project Manager £29k - £38k IT Services The IT Services Department are looking for a well organised, and highly motivated individual to assist with the project management of new clinical information systems implementations as part of the EPR/PACS Programme. The post holder will contribute to the delivery of multiple, concurrent projects from initial conception and planning to implementation and subsequent monitoring, while ensuring that best practice project.	21.01.09

Community Development Worker
Digital Accessibility